SENATOR FROM TEXAS PAID IN HIS OWN COIN

Chicago and New York Tribunes Washington Correspondents Reply to Senators Charges and Show Him to Be Railroad Senator.

BAILEY'S ATTACK IN REALITY ON ROOSEVELT

CORRESPONDENTS PRODUCE DOCUMENTARY EVIDENCE IN FORM OF WRITTEN MEMORANDUM WRITTEN BY CHANDLER, ABSOLUTELY PROVING BAILEY WAS OBJECT OF SUSPICION TO FRIENDS OF RATE BILL.

CHICAGO, May 16.—The Tribune tomorrow will print a dispatch from "Raymond" its correspondent at Washington, answering the attack made upon his veracity by Senator Bailey. It is in part:

"Washington, May 16.—When Hon. Joseph W. Bailey, Senator from Texas, struck at the President of the United States over my human shoulders, for that is all he did on the floor of the senate today, he was apparently unaware that there was documentary evidence in existence both in the official congressional record and in the form of a written memorandum written by former Senator Chandler, absolutely proving that he was the object of suspicion to the real friends of the President's railroad policy."

Suspicion of Bailey.

The correspondent says he does not mean to say Bailey deserved the suspicion, but that in the democratic conferences and caucuses in the senate, in the conference between Tillman and Moody, and through Chandler with the President, Bailey's acts gave rise to the suspicion that he was not true to the principle of railroad rate legislation.

"Mr. Bailey may be innocent as an unborn babe, and he says he is, but suspicious did exist," the correspondent says they have existed for weeks; they have been talked of in the senate cloak-rooms, on the streets, at the White House and elsewhere and in the newspapers. The dispatch explains the relationship between Tillman and Chandler, whose evidence twice has been cited on the floor of the senate by Tillman and "It is Chandler who in effect has given the lie direct to the President," and then turns to his dispatch to the Tribune which he says provoked Bailey to declare it a malicious lie and insinuates it was directly inspired by the President himself, continuing:

Chandler Was Authority.

"I stated those facts on the authority of Chandler himself. It was he who conveyed to the White House the intimation that Bailey was a traitor and if the Texas senator has anyone to blame it must be Tillman's friend—William E. Chandler."

"At the very outset of the negotiations he was conducting, Chandler prepared, and left at the White House a written memorandum for the benefit of the President. I have not the text of that memorandum before me, but quoting from memory it says 'the railroad senators want the Bailey amendment, but Tillman is for the President's court of review amendment and will block their game.'"

President Ignorant of Article.

The correspondent goes on to say the dispatch he sent to the Tribune was on his own authority and without the knowledge or consent of the President against whom Bailey trained his batteries today. The correspondent says he knows he is correct in his statement that during the negotiations Chandler made an oral statement either to the President or to some one representing him, which was much more elaborate. During this talk, in explaining the difficulty of uniting the democrats, Chandler stated in so many words that he and Tillman were suspicious of Bailey, believing he was in an alliance with Aldrich and associating with the Standard Oil and the railroad crowd in the senate, but that Tillman was watching his maneuvers and expected to be able to prevent any evil effects.

Text of Memorandum.

NEW YORK, May 16.—The Tribune's Washington correspondent gives the memorandum mentioned by the correspondent of the Chicago Tribune. The text is as follows: "To the President: The game of the railroad senators is to support Bailey's amendment and induce him to agree to the broad right of review. What that is, is not certain, but the principal object is 'to beat him', meaning the President to pass the review clause with a minimum of court power and will not enter into any such game. (Signed), William E. Chandler."

MEET IN ASTORIA

State Medical Association Meets Here Next Year.

CONVENTION OCCURS IN JULY

Plea of the Clatsop County Medical Association For State Association to Meet in Astorian is Granted.

Astoria will be the next meeting place for the Oregon State Medical Association. This was made known yesterday when the plea of the Clatsop County Medical Association that the next convention be held here, was granted by the members of the house of delegates, who made the choice yesterday morning at the convention of the state Association in Portland.

The date which was selected for the next year's meeting is sometime during the month of July. According to the present plans so far outlined, one day's session will be in this city and then the association will adjourn to Seaside for the second day. The association members will pay their own expenses, and will be entertained only at the expense of the association.

At yesterday's session of the state association at Portland Dr. E. B. Pickle, of Medford was elected president of the association, after a very close and exciting contest. Dr. Pickle's nearest opponent was Dr. S. T. Linklater, of Hillsboro, whom he defeated by only four votes. The third candidate was Dr. H. W. Byrd of Salem.

After his election Dr. Pickle took the chair which has been occupied by Dr. George F. Wilson, of Portland, for two terms, the longest any president of the association has ever held office since it was founded thirty-two years ago. Dr. Wilson received this honor because no election was held last year. The session of the American National Medical Association made one impossible.

The other officers of the association who hold office till a year from next June, are: First vice-president, Dr. J. A. Rueter, of The Dalles; second vice-president, Dr. H. M. Shaw of Ashland; third vice-president, Dr. Emma Timms of Portland; treasurer, Dr. Amelia M. Ziegler, of Portland; secretary, Dr. L. H. Hamilton, of Portland; delegate to the national convention of medical associations, Dr. H. W. Coe; alternate, Dr. George F. Wilson; councillors, Dr. Andrew C. Smith, of Portland, and Dr. W. J. May, of Baker City.

At the meeting yesterday morning in Portland a determined stand was made by the association against so-called "contract physicians." This unethical practice of curing persons by contract, they assert has been in vogue for many years. Certain hospital associations, national in the scope of their practice, sign contracts to care for people at 50 cents or some like small sum a month. Because they assert that this is detrimental to the health of the community and tends to bring fees, too low to live on, the physicians intend to have such legislation enacted as will prevent it. Similar steps have been taken in other parts of the United States.

The Medical Association also endorsed in amended form the resolutions calling for national control of tuberculosis cases, by providing sanitariums and the absolute isolation of persons so affected till they die or recover. From their funds of $700 the Medical Association appropriated $500 to the aid of the members of the profession in San Francisco.

"Holy Roller" Creffield Does Not Arise Again From Dead.

WOMEN ABANDON LAST HOPE

Poor Deceived Women Watch in Vain for Saint That Never Came—Five Fanatics Returning to Corvallis.

CORVALLIS, Ore., May 16.—Over at Heeceta Head, five women, one with a babe in arms, have been vainly awaiting babe in arms, have been vainly awaiting These five are the remnants of the Holy Roller followers formerly camped at the mouth of the Yahats. They are Mrs. Frank Hurt and baby, Olive Sandell, of Seattle; Mrs. Burt Starr, of Portland, and Mae Hurt and Attie Bray, of Corvallis.

When Creffield fled from Waldport in fear of his life, Farmer Hosford, on whose land the Holy Rollers had camped, ordered them off his premises. Frank Hurt, who remained with them, moved the camp several miles down the beach near Heeceta Head.

Leaving them to await the resurrection of Creffield, he went to Seattle. Since the apostle's death, relatives of the women have been trying to persuade them to return home, but for more than a week such efforts have been without avail.

This morning, however, word has reached here that they have broken camp and are returning via Alsea to Corvallis.

With Creffield forever out of their lives, it is believed by relatives that Holy Rollerism will with them be a thing of the past.

Boycotted by the residents of the surrounding country, who would neither sell nor give them anything, the five women who were awaiting the return of "Messiah" Creffield were in a fair way to starve to death. Timber Cruiser George Hodges, who found the women, said today that Farmer Hosford almost refused to give him shelter because Hodges had given his provisions to the women.

The dwellers along the beach feared an outbreak of Holy Rollerism among them more than the plague and would rather have let the unfortunates starve than do anything to encourage the male Rollers to return to that part of the country.

BAILEY USES STRONG LANGUAGE IN SENATE

Denounces Author of Newspaper Article, Charging Him With Failure to Find Common Ground Between President and Tillman, as Liar.

BELIEVES SLANDER CAME FROM WHITE HOUSE

TEXAS SENATOR BECOMES VERY ANGRY AT ARTICLES WHICH HE THINKS WERE WRITTEN WITH PRESIDENT'S KNOWLEDGE—CONSIDERATION OF RATE BILL IN COMMITTEE OF WHOLE CONCLUDED.

WASHINGTON, May 16.—The recent efforts of the President and Democratic senatorial leaders to reach an agreement on the rate bill received further notice in the senate today from Senators Bailey and Tillman. The matter was referred to by the Texas senator in the course of a personal examination called out by an article in the Chicago Tribune charging Bailey with failure to find common ground, and by Tillman in a speech in support of Bailey in presenting further a statement of former Senator Chandler.

Denounces Author of Article.

In his address Bailey denounced the article in question as a lie and the author and inspirator of it as "Liars" when Tillman concluded, Bailey again took the floor and said his attention had been called to another article printed in the New York Tribune today. He said it was of the same character as that printed in the Chicago Tribune and evidently they had been timed so as to bring both to Washington simultaneously. Pointing to the press gallery Bailey said "I intend to put in the record, upon the statement of more than one reputable newspaper correspondent in that gallery (and as a rule they are as honorable as the senators on this floor), on their authority, that the two chief cuckoos of this administration are correspondents of the New York Tribune and the Chicago Tribune, and therefore it seems to me conclusive that this slander proceeded from the White House. I hope for the honor of my country that it does not proceed from the President himself. But if he be a man of high sense of honor he will see to it that senators are not slandered by his subordinates, and the miserable wretch who communicated to these newspapers and who sought through them to communicate to the country, slander on me, which the people might discuss rather than the issue that has been raised; he is unfit for the high office, and the man who perpetrated that infamy will pay for it with his position and if the man continues to hold his office it is to be assumed that what he has done has been with the approval of his chief."

Rate Bill Reported to Senate.

The consideration of the rate bill in the committee of the whole was concluded and the measure then reported to the senate where there will be an opportunity to review and alter all the amendments heretofore made. Practically the entire day was devoted to the consideration of the anti-pass amendment which was adopted after making so many exceptions as to arouse laughter in the senate every time a provision was read. The work of the senate was confined to a partial consideration of the pipe line provision which was so amended as to strike out the proviso extending its operation to other countries where the United States had jurisdiction.

TO VISIT CANADA.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., May 16.—Governor Sir William MacGregor left here last night on a visit to the principal cities of Canada. While the trip is made for the benefit of the governor's health, he will undoubtedly take advantage of the opportunity to discuss with Earl Grey, the governor general of Canada, the fishery question and other problems, confronting the colony in its relations with the United States. Sir William is the first governor of New Foundland to visit Canada during his tenure of office.

APPOINTMENTS CONFIRMED.

WASHINGTON, May 16.—The Senate today confirmed George F. Pollock as assistant commissioner general of the land office, and William T. Vernon of Kansas, register of the treasury.

EMPEROR STATES HE WILL GRANT POLITICAL AMNESTY

ST. PETERSBURG, May 16.—Despite the fact that the reply to the speech from the throne in the lower house of parliament would precipitate an immediate conflict between the crown and parliament, the Associated Press is in a position to state that the emperor is determined to avert a breach if possible. Not only will political amnesty be granted, but the emperor is ready to replace the Goremykin ministry with a cabinet chosen from conservative members of the lower house in the hope of effecting a compromise. He is not willing, however, to permit the majority to select the premier, for but once such a concession is made it is difficult to understand how the emperor can halt half way and refuse a full constitutional monarchy, which government by parliamentary majority involves. Practically the parliament has already won a great victory.

BRICKMAKERS STRIKE IN COEYMANS MAKES TROUBLE

COEYMANS, N. Y., May 16.—What is practically martial law resigns tonight in this little town. The strike of brickmakers, in force all along the Hudson broke into a riot early this morning and after a pitched battle between five hundred union men and strikers and nearly as many negro non-union men in which one was severely wounded, four Albany companies of militia were ordered to Coeymans, arriving tonight.

The negroes are imported annually in the spring for the extra work and they generally refuse to join the union for the short time they are here. The main demand of the strikers is the recognition of the union by the employment of only its members. The strikers last night served notice on the non-union and carried out threat by an armed attack, which began soon after the men went to work.
